

Wayne County Community College District
and the Wayne County Community College
Federation of Teachers, AFT Local 2000

Memorandum of Understanding (MOU)

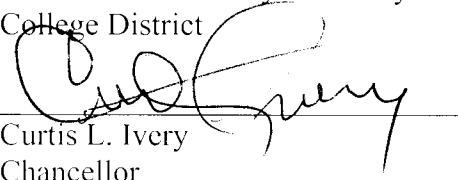

The Wayne County Community College District (hereinafter referred to as the "District") and the Wayne County Community College Federation of Teachers, AFT Local 2000 (hereinafter referred to as the "Federation") agree as follows:

1. For the summer, 2010 and fall, 2010 semesters only Article XXVI (D) (b) will be amended to read, "[T]he class size for any on-line courses shall not exceed 33 students."

2. The ability of full-time faculty who taught an entire base load in distance learning courses during any spring or fall semester up to and including spring, 2007 will be extended to allow them to select all of their courses in the distance learning modality through the fall, 2010 semester. No more than 10 full-time faculty members per semester may teach an entire load in the distance learning modality. The Union and the College will confer and identify instructors falling into this category.

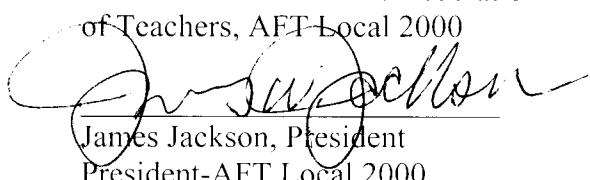

3. Paragraph 1 of the MOU between the parties dated October 2, 2007 (Exhibit B to the December 5, 2007 Tentative Agreement) will be extended to include the fall, 2010 semester only
